

The Lt. James A. Logan Post No. 6800, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was founded on April 8, 1946, in Somerville, by a group of World War II Overseas Veterans in honor and memory of Lt. James A. Logan, U.S. Army Air Corp, who made the supreme sacrifice over France on July 2, 1944 when the bomber of which he was the pilot was hit by flack while attacking robot bomb base at Pas De Alias. In memoriam, the post in its sixty eight year of organization, has won 43 State and 26 National Community Service Awards.
